

Greater New York Phonetics / Phonology Workshop
Saturday, October 25, 2003
University of Rochester

10:00 Brief Introductions (Lattimore Hall)

Informal Presentations

10:30 Tsan Huang (OSU and SUNY Buffalo)

Mandarin Tone sandhi and perception

10:50 Abby Cohn (Cornell U.)

Phonetics in phonology and phonology in phonetics

11:10 Heike Lehnert (SUNY Buffalo)

Onandaga Accent

11:20 Johanna Brugman (Cornell U.)

What makes an “r” an r?

11:40 Amanda Miller-Ockhuizen & Draga Zec (Cornell U.)

Contrastive Serbian palatal affricates

12:00 Jennifer Cornish (SUNY Buffalo)

12:30 – 2:00 Catered Lunch (Lattimore Hall)

2:00 – 3:00 Eye tracker demonstration (Meliora (BCS))

Use of eye-tracking to look at phonetic detail

3:15 – 4:00 Discussion groups (Lattimore Hall)

Language Acquisition

Ultrasound Imaging for speech research

Doing phonetic/psycholinguistic research on Native American or endangered languages

Eye-tracking to look at phonetic detail

4:00 – 4:15 Closing discussion